

VOICELINES

In THE FINALS, voicelines are more than just filler—they're crafted to bring the high-energy atmosphere of a game show with hype, humor, and personality. Below is a selection of voicelines I created for Scotty and June, reflecting their commentary styles and adding an extra layer of excitement to every match.

To make this easier to follow, I've framed these examples around the flow of a match, highlighting what the commentators might say throughout the game.

THE COMMENTATORS

Scotty

Male, American, the energetic play-by-play commentator who thrives on excitement and action.

June

Female, British, the witty and analytical color commentator, offering sharp insights and clever observations.
